SAYS WAR IS OVER

General Bell States That Alleged Interview With Peabody Is Without Foundation.

TROUBLE IS AT AN END

Says if It Was Necessary the Entire State Would Be Put Under Martial
Law.

Cripple Creek, Colo., June 20.—In response to a telegram from an eastern newspaper asking for a statement from him, as to whether he said that Governor Peabody would soon have to declare the whole of Colorado in a state of rebellion and put the state under martial law, Adjutant-General Bell has replied as follows:

"The alleged interview is absolutely without foundation. I not only never gave out such an interview, but the idea is absolutely foreign to my mind under the past and present conditions.

"There is no need of declaring Colorado under martial law.

"The whole state practically has been cleared up by my deportation system. There are but few anarchists and socialists left who can cause trouble.

"However, should it become a military necessity, the whole state of Colorado will be placed under martial law and all insurrectionists dealt with accordingly.

"I do not believe that this will ever be necessary. In my judgment the Colorado labor troubles are at an end.

"We have been making the fight for the welfare of the United States, as the Western Federation of miners has been receiving financial support and other assistance from the country at large Colorado is looking to other states to follow suit."

Baby's Bacterial Balance.

When the May baby and the June baby had got well acquainted they exchanged confidences.

"My milk comes from a certified cow," said the May baby.

"So does mine," said the June baby.

"It is milked by a man in a white suit, with sterilized hands, through absorbent cotton, and kept at a temperature of 45 degrees."

"So is mine."

"It is brought to me in prophylactic wagon drawn by modified horses."

"So is mine."

"Then, how in the thunder do you manage to be so fat and well?"

The June baby winked slyly. "I shew old paper and the corners of the rugs and anything I can find that is dirty, and in that way I manage to maintain that bacterial balance which is essential to health," he said, chuck-ling.

The May baby laughed long and loud.
"So do I," said he.

The mamas heard the goo-gooing, but they assigned to it only the usual fantastic significance. It was just as well.
